Over The Years

You Know You're in PHS When...

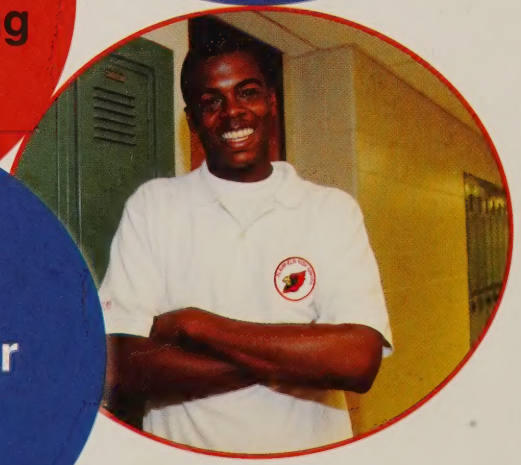
The bell to end fifth period sounds different than all the other bells

The bells are either two minutes early or five minutes late.

You have to wait 15 seconds to open a door to outside... and an alarm sounds

There's a foot of snow outside, everybody else is off, but you're still in school.

You can walk into the girls bathroom and see someone getting their hair done.



They make you wear uniforms your senior year.

Senior Advisor

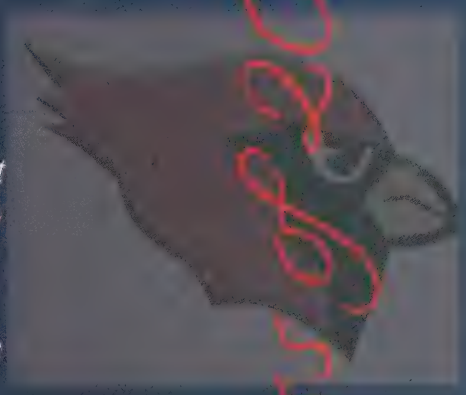
To the class of 2010:

Congratulations on your accomplishment! Graduating from high school is an important step for the challenges that lie ahead of you. Your class has demonstrated its leadership qualities through academic, athletic and extra curricular achievements. You are challenged to set rigorous goals to equip yourself with the skills and knowledge necessary to be productive and competitive in a global society. I am confident that many of you will compete globally, and will be successful in life's endeavors.

We have had a productive school year. I urge you to always maintain a sense of personal responsibility for making our society a better place for all. It has been a great year and now it is time to say goodbye. I will miss all of you, but I know you will continue to do great things and become successful in whatever endeavors that you may pursue.

Best Wishes,

P.Hembree



Class of 2010

To The Graduating Seniors:

As members of the class of 2010 your journey after high school begins at the start of a new decade. With every new decade more possibilities exist as well as new challenges. These possibilities and challenges can be dreams of what can be in the future or obstacles that you let stand in the way of those dreams. Whatever you choose this decade to be; should be your choice and yours alone!

2010

T.E. Lawrence states, "All men dream, but not equally. Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their mind[illegible] in the day to find that it was vanity; but the dreamers of the day are dangerous men, for they act on their dreams with open eyes, to make them possible."

PHS, Class of 2010, dream with your eyes open! Believe that what your mind can imagine you can achieve. The success of this new decade largely depends on, not only whether you dream but whether you dream with your eyes open.

Class of 2010, we will miss you at PHS! We will miss the contributions you have made in making PHS a better place. We will miss all the smiles and exciting moments you have provided in the last four years. Remember you will always be cardinals!!!
Good luck in all future endeavors.

Sincerely,
Dr.Brian Bilal
Class of 87'

Dear Class Of 2010:

You have successfully completed your Senior Year! It is an honor to have worked with you this year through your hard work and determination to leave PHS on a high note!

The varied personalities of the [illegible] 2010 [illegible] made [illegible] first year here one that I will always treasure. Your intelligence, humor and challenging behavior assure me that our future is in capable hands. The question is, how will you use your power to impact the world that will be? How will you use the challenges you've overcome, the knowledge you've gained in PHS classrooms, and friendships you've developed to grow [illegible] following classes should emulate? I eagerly await the answers and hope that you will come back to PHS to teach us how you've grown. Thank you for sharing your experiences, your college [illegible], your trials and successes, and your myriad personalities. I am so proud to have been your Vice Principal. Good luck and best wishes to all you do in the future!

The class of 2010 began the school year before any [illegible] the building. Your class leaders met last summer to [illegible] the upcoming year, including the institution of the PHS uniform policy and the impressive agenda for school activities. Your class has shown a dedication to bringing positive activities to the school all year. From the Homecoming Dance to the Pool Party to the Talent Show, the Senior Class has proven to staff, families and students that students are the answer to making PHS lively, productive and successful.

Dr. Slocom

Seniors have placed their mark in academic and extra-curricular activities. the National Honors Society inducted new members. The Debate Team hosted students from around the state. Our athletes competed in high school and university settings. Our actors and singers welcomed community members to our school. Our dancers wowed crowds of students and families. Our clubs and classrooms have brought vitality and community to PHS, and we thank you for your hard work.

To the Class of 2010,

Seems like it was only yesterday, we were entering as freshmen and now we're saying goodbye. Goodbye to a bunch of tomorrow's and entering a world of today, with great possibilities heading our way. The past four years at PHS has been challenging, but life changing. We have shared some great memories and fun times that we will not forget. We have not only grown as a class, but ultimately as young adults. Our Class has left a mark, which will be hard to top. We finally made it 2G10!

Sincerely,
Yearbook Staff
